No Favor Do I Seek Today

I come not to ask,
to plead, or implore-- I just come to tell You how much I adore You.
For to kneel in Your presence makes me feel blessed,
For I know that You know
all my needs best,
And it fills me with joy
just to linger with you.
As my soul You replenish and my heart You renew.
For prayer is much more than just asking for things-- It's the peace and contentment that quietness brings.
So thank You again for Your mercy and love
And for making me heir to Your kingdom above.

Helen Steiner Rice

Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.
Romans 14:19
